Table notes

Figure in brackets refers to data from separate joint-programme for schools with more than one programme ranked. † Salary increase from graduation. ‡ Data are provided for information only. Most recently published data or data provided for a ranking are given * School was ranked outside the final ranking table in 2018.  School participated in this ranking on the basis of a joint programme only. Underlying score based on proportion of total score. The heavier horizontal lines denote the pattern of clustering among the schools, based on significant differences in ranking scores. Around 200 points separate London Business School at the top from the school ranked number 95. The top 12 business schools from LBS to Warwick Business School form the top group. The second group is headed by University of Cambridge: Judge includes 68 schools. The remaining 15 schools in the third group are headed by Burgundy School of Business.
